 Aniket Sawant

Aniket has been a key contributor to the firm's Banking & Finance, Insolvency, and Corporate practice since 2017. He provides comprehensive legal counsel to banks and financial institutions on a range of debt financing transactions, including construction finance, inventory financing, and lease rental discounting. Additionally, Aniket is actively involved in debt capital market transactions, focusing on the private placement of non-convertible securities.

His expertise in the Insolvency & Bankruptcy Code encompasses drafting resolution plans for submission by resolution applicants and offering advisory services to stakeholders, including resolution professionals, committees of creditors, and operational creditors. Furthermore, Aniket has significant experience in transactions related to due diligence, mergers and acquisitions, private equity and investments, private placements, and the establishment of alternative investment funds.
