 Ateev Mathur

Ateev is a core litigation lawyer having wide experience of around twenty years. He has relentlessly and successfully steered many high-stake litigations involving Corporate laws, Constitutional remedies, Economic offences. He has represented multinational companies and corporate houses before the Supreme Court of India, High Court, various Tribunals and authorities. He has designed strategies intended to resolve complex legal matters leading to positive resolutions before courts. His work has earned him a distinction as the Firm's trusted and sought-after Partner, entrusted with handling high profile cases.

Cultivating enduring relationships, managing clients, developing existing clients into major clients of the Firm are a few of his many abilities. Ateev has been consulted by publication houses such as Economic Times, BW Business Worlds, Legal Era, etc. in providing clarity on various legal intricacies on various streams of law.

He has authored articles involving issues related to effect of Judgment passed by the Supreme Court of India in the matter of Bharat Aluminum on Arbitration laws, expiry of terms of provisional attachment under Prevention of Money Laundering Act and Arbitrability of landlord tenant disputes. He has also commented on the effect of notifying the UAE as reciprocating territory.

Ateev's ongoing litigations involve substantial and important questions of law. Many of the litigations conducted by him involving Civil rights, Debts recovery laws, Medical negligence, Constitutional remedies involving Town planning and Municipal laws have been reported in major legal journals.

Other than work time, Ateev enjoys playing chess or spending time with family.
