 Chandra Shekhar Mishra

Chandra Shekhar Mishra is a seasoned legal professional with over two decades of experience. His career began in litigation, and then he transitioned to practice of corporate law. His background in litigation allows him to anticipate potential risks and guide clients through complex transactions with a keen eye for detail.

Chandra specializes in banking and finance, mergers and acquisitions (M&A), and real estate law. He has served as Lenders' Legal Counsel for power projects and other infrastructure projects, representing consortiums of banks and financial institutions. He has drafted numerous financing and security documents, ensured robust security creation and perfection, and conducted legal audits of distressed assets. With a deep understanding of M&A transactions, including joint ventures, Chandra expertly manages legal due diligence, identifies and mitigates risks, and resolves critical issues. He is a skilled negotiator, adept at drafting definitive agreements and collaborating with stakeholders to achieve successful closings. Chandra also has a proven track record in real estate law, advising clients on title complexities, development projects, and regulatory compliance. He has conducted comprehensive due diligence on properties across India and is adept at drafting collaboration agreements and transfer documents.

Chandra's keen desire to help his clients resolve disputes amicably through negotiations led to become an IMI Qualified mediator. Beyond his corporate work, Chandra is dedicated to pro bono initiatives, believing in the power of law to serve the community.
