 Rajul Shrivastav

A seasoned lawyer with nearly two decades of experience, Rajul Shrivastav specializes in criminal cases, trial advocacy, appellate litigation, and environmental law. From trial courts to the Supreme Court, he is the go-to advocate for clients navigating high-stakes criminal cases and complex environmental disputes. His meticulous legal strategy and sharp courtroom presence have earned him a strong reputation in criminal trials, white collar crime litigation, and environmental matters before the National Green Tribunal (NGT).

Rajul has successfully represented individuals, businesses, and organizations across various courts in India. His expertise includes defending clients in Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) cases, financial fraud investigations, and regulatory offenses, as well as handling critical environmental disputes and compliance matters. His deep understanding of procedural and substantive law, coupled with his ability to anticipate challenges, makes him a formidable advocate in contentious legal battles.
